

Community Rules

Harassment and Violent Behavior

The following breaches Community Guidelines:

- Threats and intimidation
- Harassment, bullying, and spamming
- Threats of physical harm or other criminal activities
- Requesting nudes

The following cannot be shared:

- Gory or graphic images/videos.
- Images/videos that promote violence, such as violent acts, guns, knives or weapons.
- Hateful content or content promoting organized crime of any kind, including terrorism.

Sexually Explicit Behavior and Content

The following breaches Community Guidelines:

- Any sexual content involving minors
- Promoting or advertising sexual services.

The following cannot be shared:

- Pornographic or sexually explicit content.
- Shirtless/underwear mirror selfies/videos.
- Nude images/videos of yourself or others.
- Photos/videos in bikinis/swimwear indoors.
- Pictures/videos in underwear.

Identity

The following breaches Community Guidelines:

- Not showing your face clearly while live streaming

- Using fake pictures as your profile picture
- Impersonating someone else
- Lying about your birthday
- Impersonating others
- Using photos or videos of others without permission
- Using other users' social media accounts.

Obeying the Law

- Using Superlive app for illegal activities
- Sharing videos/images promoting drugs
- Soliciting other users with coupon codes, sales links or other spam.

Underage Restrictions

- Users and streamers must meet the minimum age requirements for participation. Underage use is strictly forbidden.
- Any form of child abuse, exploitation, or endangerment is a severe violation of the guidelines and the law. Such actions will be reported to legal authorities, and offenders may face criminal charges, including imprisonment.

What happens if you violate our Community Guidelines?

If you are reported or violate our Community Guidelines, you will receive a warning. However, illegal behavior or behavior showing a clear lack of consideration will result in an instant ban.

The guidelines outlined here aim to make the Superlive community a friendly, safe and inclusive space.